COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Sachi A. Hamai, Executive Officer-

Los Angeles, California 90012

At its meeting held December 5, 2006, the Board took the following action:

7

Supervisor Yaroslavsky made the following statement:

“On December 7, 1941 America’s self-confidence was devastated by a treacherous surprise attack against our armed forces in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

“That infamous day marked the start of this Nation’s involvement in World War II, costing the lives of more than 2,400 American service personnel and civilians, and the wounding of more than 1,000 people.

“The assault on Pearl Harbor and other military installations, like the contemptible terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, should serve as perpetual reminders that America must always remain vigilant and strong in the defense of freedom.

“We commemorate this day to remember and honor those dauntless and courageous veterans of World War II who fought around the globe to liberate oppressed nations and ensure for all the precious gifts of liberty and peace.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Yaroslavsky, seconded by Supervisor Molina, unanimously carried, the Board took the following actions:

1. Proclaimed December 7, 2006 as “Pearl Harbor Day” throughout Los Angeles County;
2. Urged all residents to participate in ceremonies honoring the Americans who served at Pearl Harbor; and
3. Requested that all flags throughout the County be flown at half-staff in honor of those Americans who died in the attacks on that fateful day.
